

The 2010 SUNOCO
24 Hrs of DAYTONA
RACERS Tour

ROLEX
AT DAYTONA 24

28th of January to 1st of February

Would you rather be in front of your TV on a gloomy, miserable typical English winter day watching racing videos OR jetting off to Florida to experience one of the best endurance races in the world?

The Rolex 24 At Daytona® is one of the iconic races alongside the 24 hrs of Le Mans and the Sebring 12 hrs. It is a race that every sports car racer in the world dreams of participating in and of course of winning.

Thanks to the Rolex 24 At Daytona Driver Challenge presented by Sunoco this dream has come true for 2008 and 2009 Radical UK Cup Champion Derek Johnston.

Derek just pipped 97 other racers from the British GT, British F3, Radical UK Cup and the SPEED series to win the 2009 Sunoco Driver Challenge.

This phenomenal prize, to race a Daytona Prototype at the 2010 Rolex 24 At Daytona®, gives Derek a good chance of turning this dream into reality. Last year's race was won by David Donohue, Darren Law, Antonia Garcia and Buddy Rice in the Brumos Porsche just 0.167 seconds ahead of Juan Pablo Montoya - absolutely awesome!

Anglo American Oil Company Ltd has teamed up with Travel Destinations Ltd, Grand-Am, ISC and Sunoco to offer you a fantastic behind the scenes trip to the race. You will gain an exclusive insight into US long-distance racing, and have paddock and grand-stand access for an action packed experience.

Come with us to support Derek at the Daytona Beach and have an on-the-edge exciting time in the sun!

You will love it - see you there!
